Umalas, Bali-Indonesia

We have a fantastic team of national and international teachers and specialists. We are also proud of our continuing program of professional development, to ensure best practice is always being incorporated in our classrooms. Our teachers are highly trained in areas such as communication, well-being, and curriculum differentiation, and this ensures we have more than just classroom teachers, we have expert educators.

Our School

ProEducation School (ProEd) in Umalas, Bali, is an inclusive international school providing differentiated instruction for primary to high school students (Grades 1 to 13). We cater to multiple learning preferences and differences for both mainstream students and those with additional needs.

Our Approach to Learning

We take a student-centered approach to education, with small class sizes and individualized timetables. Our educators focus on individual learning needs and developing the whole child. Our teachers work alongside our specialists to ensure that each child's specific needs are addressed, with curriculum and teaching strategies being differentiated where needed.

Our Curriculums

ProEducation follows the prodigious British Curriculum and students receive international accreditation through EdExcel, the Primary School Achievement test, IGCSE, and A-Levels. In addition, we provide the internationally accredited ASDAN curriculum for those with additional learning needs. Our curriculums are combined and tailored to create student timetables that build on our students' strengths, whilst supporting their needs.
